

Scott J. Seeburger Young Artist Award

The Scott J. Seeburger Young Artist Award was created to recognize and support emerging talent in Saginaw County, ensuring that young creatives have the resources they need to grow and thrive.

This annual award honors outstanding artists ages 17–30 across the visual, performing, literary, and digital arts, providing a $1,000 grant to help them further develop their skills and artistic journey. Whether through education, new projects, or professional opportunities, this award is a stepping stone for the next generation of creators shaping the future of the arts.
